Skills and Experience

Eileen Curtis is the former Chief Executive of Kilkenny and Carlow Education and Training Board (KCETB), one of the largest providers of education and training in the southeast region.

Eileen has extensive experience in the field of education across the areas of teaching and learning, curriculum, governance and continuing professional development. She also has significant expertise in the field of further education and training leading the expansion of services, including the transfer of training functions to KCETB. The leadership of change and transformation with its attendant governance and regulatory requirements has been a key feature of Eileen's work.

Prior to being appointed as Chief Executive of KCETB in 2019, Eileen held a number of senior roles, including as Acting CEO (of Co. Kilkenny VEC), Education Officer and Director of Schools.

Eileen has acted in a representative role on many local and sectoral groups and is currently chairperson of Castlecomer Community School.

Eileen is a BA, H. Dip. Ed. graduate of Maynooth University and holds an MA in Adult and Community Education, Maynooth University and an MA in Management in Education from Waterford Institute of Technology.
